Red Wings either has Ready equalled victory total for 1960

United Press International
The International League season is less than three weeks old and pitcher John Anderson of the Rochester Red Wings has already equaled the victory total for the entire 1960 season.

Anderson, who had a 2-0 record for the Miami Marlins last season, registered his second win of the current campaign Tuesday night when the Red Wings beat the Richmond Braves 6-3.

Anderson yielded three runs, including a homer by John Jacob in the first inning and didn't allow another hit until the fifth inning. He struck out six batters and had five assists.

The victory moved the Red Wings to within two games of the fourth place Toronto Maple Leafs.

Jackie Collum picked up his first victory, the only win in the Syracuse Mets' first game.

"CEASE MILITARY ACTIONS"

The communist-backed rebels in Laos say they have "ceased military actions." The announcement—received through Red China—was hailed by a front-page news item with the pro-western forces. However, there is no immediate word from Laos that the fighting has stopped.

PROMPTS CAUTIONOUS OPTIMISM

The continuing lull in the Laotian civil war has prompted a cautious optimism in official Washington. U.S. officials say possibilities have improved for taking the Laotian conflict out of the battlefield and into the conference room. A trade would set the stage for the 14-nation Geneva Conference beginning May 12th.

NEXT TENTATIVE DATE

Rocket scientists at Cape Canaveral have named Friday as the next tentative date for America's first manned space flight. The shot could have been rescheduled for tomorrow, but project Mercury directors want to give the spaceman—Commander Alan Shepard—another day's rest. Bad weather postponed the shot yesterday.

BRITISH GOV'T EMPLOYEE GIVEN 42 YEARS

A British government employee has been sentenced to 42 years in prison after admitting he had spied for Russia since November 1951. Britain's Lord Chief Justice told 38-year old George Blake: "Your case is one of the worst that can be envisaged in times of peace." The British Attorney General says Blake did not admit to espionage but to Russia was important but did not admit to espionage or nuclear weapons.

HEARS ANOTHER WITNESS

The Jerusalem court trying accused mass murderer Adolf Eichmann heard another witness tell of the horrors the Jews went through during World War Two. The witness said starvation and deportation cut the number of Jews in Warsaw Ghetto from 300,000 down to 10,000.

EXPLOSION SHATTERS FACTORY

An explosion shattered a fireworks factory in Caracas, Venezuela and the surrounding houses early today, killing an estimated 200 persons and injuring at least 50 others. Authorities say 15 bodies have been recovered and five others are believed buried in the debris.

NEW BILL PASSED

A bill passed in the House of Commons last night meant that large fishing vessels can fish the area between three and 12 miles off Canada's coast. It removes a 46-year old anomaly which kept larger Canadian vessels outside a 12-mile limit while allowing foreign vessels to come in to three miles. The restriction was originally imposed to protect hook and line fishermen—who now have almost disappeared.

SHOULD TAKE UNILATERAL ACTION

Opposition leader Lester B. Pearson told the commons last night that Canada—like Ireland—should take unilateral action to extend her territorial waters to a 12-mile limit. He reminded the commons that a Canadian-United States proposal for a 12-mile international limit was defeated by one vote at last year's Geneva law of the sea conference. Two conservative members warned that any Canadian attempt to enforce a 12-mile limit could lead to United States retaliation.

EMPHASIZES SERIOUSNESS

Barley sources say that Communist China's purchase of 360-million dollars worth of Canadian wheat and barley emphasizes the seriousness of China's food problems. But they say there are strong indications that none of China's troubles stem from the commune system—and not all from floods and shipping drought that have wiped wheat averages. Foreign experts are wondering where China will find the money to pay Canada while fulfilling promises of economic aid to several countries.

CALL FOR MORE FUNDS

Canadian and U.S. plant and animal disease experts have called for more funds to fight the importation of pests by ship and plane. Experts meeting in Syracuse, New York, yesterday said that unless more money is provided, such tree diseases as the Dutch Elm disease and pests like the Oriental rat will continue to spread. One official warned that plant and tree diseases are particularly likely to spread via foreign ships on the St. Lawrence seaway.

Dear Sir:

The Victoria Rifles of Canada, the second oldest combat regiment in the country, this year celebrates its 100th anniversary. Thousands of men and women have passed through the ranks of the "Vics" in both world wars and the regiment is trying to get as many of them as possible together for a reunion. It is held in Montreal from Oct. 20 to Sunday, Oct. 22.

Inevitably, many former "Vics" have been killed in the recent wars and the regiment is trying to get as many of them as possible together for a reunion. It is held in Montreal from Oct. 20 to Sunday, Oct. 22.

The Premier Prott made the comment yesterday at Malton Airport, on his arrival from a European tour.

Any old "Vic" who wishes to attend the reunion, or who has the further information about it, should get in touch with him or her at the Malton Airport, 651, Calcutta St. Montreal, P.Q.

"The cut in the Recreation Commission's budget this year is not a disaster," Mayor Joe Holton told the Post Friday, "But the $11,500 left in the budget for programs this year still represents a substantial increase over last year's budget of around $6,000," he said.

STOP!

Hives Can Be Stubborn

Dear Dr. Steinhilber: On various occasions during the past few months I have been bothered by a mass of hives over my lips and eyes because I was attempting to run in a brawl. After a few days of taking pyrimethamine and corticosteroids which my doctor prescribed, the hives disappear — only to return again. — Mr. L. Galt

Answer: If you have ever had an attack of "hives" you may wonder what all the shouting is about. Probably your doctor gave you an injection of adrenalin or an antihistamine — and within hours your attack was over, never to return again.

However, it's an entirely different matter if you suffer from "urticaria" often. This form of urticaria often lasts for weeks or months. Both doctor and patient are sorely tried to keep up their faith and hope that they will be able to master this itchy mess. Wheals — large or small — may pop out on any part of the body. The discomfort drives some persons to distraction. They can't sleep, eat, or they can't work or relax.

The doctor's job is to set out on a frustrating trail of detective work. If you have chronic urticaria, he will put you on a basic diet and gradually add back the foods he hopes are covering one to which you are allergic. He may take skin tests. He will check on the perfumes you use, the soaps you wash with, the clothes you wear. Do you have some penicillin or other bacterial infection? What drugs have you been taking lately? Are the vitamins among these group B or extract, insulin, vitamins, various sera (vaccines), penicillin. There are dozens of possibilities.

Sometimes chronic urticaria is associated with underlying illness of a severe nature. Therefore, in chronic hives, the doctor must proceed slowly for a complete physical examination.

And let's not forget the effect of strong emotions. Frustration and chronic hostility and resentment can produce urticaria, too.

I shall never forget the patient who had the most severe case of urticaria for several months. I could not find any cause. Just about when I and the dermatologist were about ready to give up, the doctor told me the confessions about a deteriorating marital problem. This was the cause. And when he was calmed, her hives disappeared.

So you see, when diets, antihistamines, corticosteroids and other medicines don't help, forget the past year's urticaria or the only remedies necessary for obtaining effective cure of chronic hives.

pressure of the enlarged thyroid (or trachea) there may be such complications as: hoarseness, cough, shortness of breath, and difficulty in swallowing. Duplicate Bridge Column Three Beside the Travelling score column, every experienced duplicate player keeps a private scorecard. This card may be merely a travelling scorecard converted for the moment into a private score. The idea is that you want a record of what you did on each board so you can discuss the interesting hands later on with your partner or with other players.

Perhaps when you play a hand, you have a feeling that you should have made a spades instead of going down four. If you have a private score, you put a check mark opposite board 5 and look up the travelling scorecard and see that you were down four. If you have a private score, you put a check mark opposite board 5 and look up the travelling scorecard and see that you were down four.

MATCH-POINTS The flip side of the match-point is the match-point. The flip side of the match-point is the match-point. The flip side of the match-point is the match-point.

MATCH POINTS Each hand counts equally towards your final score, regardless of whether the hand will produce a grand slam or a small score or even a loss. With this method you can't rely on a few big hands, you have to play well on ALL the hands. The director compares your score on each board with the score of each pair that played the board in the same direction. That is if Illustration of a person playing bridge.

YOUR TOTAL SCORE

After the director has matched all the score plays, he adds up all of the match points that were scored by each of the pairs. The totals are usually posted on a blackboard.

You don't expect to win your first duplicate game naturally, but you should aim to get above average. Let's take an example. Suppose you play in a 7 table game with 28 boards in all. Top on any board is 6 match points and an average is therefore 3 match points. If you multiply average on a board (3 points) by the number of boards (28 boards) you get 84 match points, which is average for the session. Your score is sometimes expressed in the form of top on every board. Average would be 50%. The director is usually very generous of whether the hand will produce a grand slam or a small score or even a loss. With this method you can't rely on a few big hands, you have to play well on ALL the hands. The director compares your score on each board with the score of each pair that played the board in the same direction. That is if

Administrator reports hospital now has fire emergency program

The Ross Memorial Hospital has completed a written fire emergency program. The announcement was contained in the report of Administrator Eric Freyburn to the meeting of the hospital's Board of Governors Thursday night.

Mr. Freyburn said that the program was the result of consultation with the various department heads and Fire Chief Arnold Watts of the Lindsay Fire Department.

"This basic fire procedure manual will be supplemented by individual routines developed within each department of the hospital following the basic principles outlined," said Mr. Freyburn. "The proposed fire procedure is now in the hands of the management committee of the board, awaiting their recommendation to the board for approval," he said.

Also included in Mr. Freyburn's report were reports on the progress of the bargaining meetings with the Union having arrived at a proposed collective agreement to be recommended by the Board by the Management Committee for approval.

Statistically, the month of March shows a general increase in all departments compared to February, 1981, and year to date figures show a decrease.

"Admissions are up 20 in March compared to February, 1981 and 406 in 1981 compared to 406 in other words, an increase of 5%."

"Patient days service rendered in March totalled 3,484 compared to 3,000 the previous month and up 2,435 in 1981 over 1980."

"Average Daily occupancy was 1114 patients compared with 1073 in February. Year to date figures show an average of 110.7 in 1981 compared to 71.7 in 1980."

"Our percentage occupancy in relation to our rated capacity ran at 94% on our Nursing Units, excluding maternity which is at only 55% occupancy."

"Out-patient service is up slightly over February and up 10% over January. Patients treated compared to 1980."

"Surgical operations are up 14 in March over February, and to date figures indicate an increase of 40 patients compared to 1980, however should be pointed out, however

Draws for spring hats made at Kawartha Rebekah Tea

A very successful Spring Tea was held by the ladies of the Kawartha Rebekah Lodge at the 10.03 P. Hall, Lindsay, on the 24th. The hall was tastefully decorated in lovely pastel shades with mauve and blue predominating. Hanging from the ceiling were inverted sunshades in pastel colours and the walls were trimmed with squares of mauve and blue with centres trimmed with dainty doliets.

The centre table was resplendent with pink-mauve flowers as a centerpiece, silver card-carryers with mauve and blue candles and lovely silver tea sets. The small tables were decorated with centres of a little doll, a dress made of doliets. The table napkins were also trimmed with mauve. Dainty teas were served of salad and delicious cookies of all sorts. The centre of each plate of the table was a large cookie and the table was decorated with mauve and blue with centres trimmed to represent a Spring hat.

Tennison of 43 Hartfield Court, Niagara, member of the National Model Railroad Association, Niagara Frontier Region. He has a basement room, 11 x 24, devoted to his hobby. His brother Bill, a Boy Scout leader, and 18 others made up a family group which took the trip. The picture at the bottom of the page show, left, Lewis Gordon, Lindsay water commissioner and oldest retired railroad engineer in the town. He was on hand at the refueling plant to supervise the refilling of the engine's water tank, the water being a goodwill gift from the commission.

his son Jim, aged 7, who got a big kick out of the excursion.

proposed new South Ward sewer by sending out notices to 40 property owners involved, giving the estimated costs of the project, with a questionnaire to be filled out either in favour or against. Thirty-one replies were received, 25 back-

"Mrs. 1897 and Mrs. 1961"

title of skit presented by Lorneville-Arlyle WI

Woodville (PNS) — The May meeting of Woodville Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Cecil Smith with 24 ladies present and Miss Joyce Westlake in the chair.

The meeting opened. The roll was called and answered by "a cure for the blues".

The attendance prize was drawn for and was won by Mrs. C. Pligg. Minutes were read and approved and treasurer's report given. After some discussion it was moved, seconded and carried that a committee consisting of Mrs. S. Murray, Mrs. M. P. Austin and Mrs. George Benson, look into the purchasing of some matching cups and saucers of finer quality to replace the ones we now have in our cupboards at the lower hall. It was also agreed that some other necessities be purchased for the kitchen. On motion of Mrs. Davies and Mrs. Austin it was agreed to send $25.00 towards the building of a museum in Victoria County. Mrs. F. Davy reported for the Remembrance Committee as to cards sent during the past month.

The West Victoria District Annual to be held in Box Canyon. The voting delegates appointed from Woodville W.I. are Mrs. G. Benson (District Director), Mrs. Percy Hill, Miss Joyce Westlake and Mrs. A. Canning. Alternates Mrs. W. Bays, Mrs. C. Yeale, Mrs. R. MacLeod and Mrs. C. Smith.

Miss Westlake then gave a very fine report on Citizenship and Education in the place of a former member, Mrs. C. J. Beckley, who had been convener, but who moved away during the year. As two members, Mrs. Alice Lapp and Mrs. Vernon Fisher are leaving this month, for a holiday in the British Isles it was agreed that Maple Leaf pins be purchased and presented to them before they leave. Homes were offered and convener for programmes arranged for 1961-62. It was also agreed that gifts be given to the County Home in November as usual and there will be the usual exchange of Christmas gifts among members in December.

Mrs. L. N. McNinn, Convener.

er, then took charge of the programme. The motto being: "Here's a Hint, just your fit — Laugh a Bit!" Mrs. McNinn read several jokes. Mrs. Wm. Bays gave a very interesting reading entitled, "What is a Gift?" Mrs. MacEachern and Mrs. Rae Fyfe of Lorneville-Arlyle Women's Institute then presented a skit entitled Mrs. 1897 and Mrs. 1961—Dressed in appropriate costumes — Mrs. 1897 complete with bonnet, caps, apron, long sleeved high necked blouse and long full skirt over countless petticoats and Mrs. 1961 very daintily in a sun dress fashionably short with nylon and spike heels, presented the contrast of the times. Needless to say Mrs. 1897 was very concerned that Mrs. 1961 put on more clothing before anyone saw her. Their conversation centered around modern kitchens as compared to those Mrs. 1897 knew. Some old-fashioned recipes were also given in comparison to those produced from refrigerators and deep freezers. This was very well presented and much enjoyed by everyone. Mrs. Cecil Smith played a medley of songs on the electric organ, consisting of "Indian Love Call", "Hills of Ivy" and "Lullaby". This was much appreciated.

Mrs. Minnie Hill read — "The Confessions of a Dress-Shop Saleslady", which provided much amusement. Mrs. McNinn thanked all who had helped with the programme and especially those who presented the skit. Miss Westlake thanked Mrs. Smith for her home and announced the June meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Percy Hill.

Kinmount

Mr. and Mrs. William Mark, Peterborough, visited relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald McEldon, of Detroit, Michigan, are holidaying in the community.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Scott and family of Lindsay, enjoyed a visit at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Scott. Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Jackson, of Lakehurst, were guests of Misses Maude and Marie Jackson.

NEGOTIATIONS WILL OPEN MAY 20TH
The long-awaited peace negotiations between France and the Algerian rebels will open May 20th at the French resort town of Evian on Lake Geneva. Both the French government and the Algerian rebels announced the negotiations issued in Paris and Tunisia. The talks originally had been set for April several weeks but were postponed because the rebels insisted on being the first to announce the Algerian movement. Today's announcement did not mention whether the controversy has been settled.

THREE DAY CONFERENCE ENDS
The three-day conference of NATO foreign ministers has ended in Oslo, Norway, with the Atlantic allies pledging to safeguard the freedom of Berlin. The 15 NATO nations announced their determination to block the communist drive for global expansion, but at the same time offered to negotiate "just and equitable solutions of outstanding political problems" with the Soviet Bloc.

PROTESTS TO COMMISSION
Informed sources say the government of Laos has protested to the international commission that the rebels have broken the ceasefire. The sources say the government complained that rebel forces attacked government guerrillas after the ceasefire was proclaimed last Wednesday. The commission says it has received an invitation to go to the rebel stronghold and presumably the protest will be taken up there.

ARRIVE FOR TALKS
In Geneva, representatives to the 14-nation Laos peace conference are arriving for the talks, which are scheduled to begin Friday. But there is no certainty there will be a conference since the U.S. says it will not take part until a ceasefire in Laos is verified. However, the British Foreign office has expressed optimism the conference will begin as planned.

MORE ANTISEMITIC THAN HITLER
Accused mass murderer Adolf Eichmann was charged today with being a more rabid anti-semitic than Adolf Hitler. Evidence was produced showing Eichmann allegedly urged the continuation of the execution of Jews even after Hitler had ordered to stop it. NEW ROLE
Sources say External Affairs Minister Howard Green may have opened a new role for Canada—that of critic of Washington foreign policy. Experts say that Green's warning may mean that Canada intends to act as a frank commentator on U.S. actions. Apparently no one else in the western camp wants to take on the job.

QUIETER SESSION
Commons speaker Lord Michener is hoping to have a quieter session today after last night's Commons sitting—which ended with one of the noisiest demonstrations. The row erupted as the opposition continued its attempt to have Bank of Canada governor James Coyne brought before parliament for questioning. Acting House Leader George Nowlan—because of what he described as "a disgraceful exhibition"—refused to give the order of business for today.

Parkview bylaw fails to command necessary three-quarter majority

Town Council, Monday night, failed to register a necessary three-quarter majority vote in favor of a bylaw to change the name of Parkview Street to Parkview Drive. The bylaw failed to carry, thus ending an almost-year-long history of petitions and counter petitions for or against the name change.

Mayor Holm made it clear that six votes would be required to pass the third reading of the bylaw, and only four were registered. Later on—Councillor DeGroot asked for a pull on the vote, but the mayor ruled that it was too late.

Council had the bylaw prepared after receiving a petition in favor of the name change. Town Clerk W. L. Alby advised council that the bylaw would require a three-quarter majority of all readings, and that before third reading, it would have to be approved by a county judge in a special hearing.

It was some time before the special reading was held, but substantial opposition to changing the name was made known at the hearing. However, the judge finally ruled that the majority of residents were for Parkview Avenue rather than Pollinger Street, and signed approval to the change.

Before the council could give the bylaw third reading, another petition was taken up by those opposing the change and presented to council. The effect of the new petition was felt when the matter came to its decisive vote Monday night, and fell by the wayside.

New way to kill quack grass in corn

There's a new double-barrelled system for killing quack grass this year. Three years ago, you missed with amino-triazole. In this way you get a double-barrelled kill on the quack.

Why is the new 2-chemical system the best way to kill quack grass? Because it's more certain than summer fallow; you get a crop that grows and you get a different crop like oats or pasture the next year. With high-rate atrazine you can't do that; you have to grow for three or four years. There's a drawback to dalapon too; you have to wait six weeks before you can plant corn. The best way to apply amino-triazole is to calibrate your quack grass sprayer on a per acre basis and then spray all the patches of quack. If the field is badly infested, it might pay to do the whole field.

With Atrazine, you spray the whole field since it kills annual weeds too," says Anderson.

Cost? It's expensive, but he'd be worth it when you consider quack grass could lower your corn yields by 10 to 50%. The amino-triazole costs $2.25 per bushel and the Atrazine is $3.00 a pound. The total cost to an acre is about $18.

Oakwood-born nurse returns from trip "down under"

Oakwood (PNS)—Miss Marion Hardy of Toronto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hardy, returned from a trip which took her "down under" to Australia. Incidentally, she lost a day on the way over, but gained one when she returned. Leaving Vancouver early in December by C. P. A. a short time before the war broke out, she spent some time as guest of her classmate, Mrs. MacBarter.

Mrs. Christmas was different for most people living in Australia—turkey sandwiches or turkey barbecue at the beach, with the temperature ranging from 70 to 80 degrees, more or less, Miss Hardy and her friends had a morning dip in one of the beaches for which Australia is famous. Then in their wet bathing clothes, they sat around and enjoyed their sunbaths in a fishery pine tree, and later had a sit-down turkey dinner.

During the early part of February she did a bit of work in the operating theatre at one of the hospitals in Sydney, where custom is for the nurse to live in residence.

Many trips to various of the islands in the Pacific were made during the day. The "Great Barrier Reef," and twelve days visit to the Great Barrier Reef, where there were 12,500 people in all, were very enjoyable experiences.

Ruled out of order, councillor walks out

Councillor Jas. Hutten abruptly left the town council meeting Monday night, before he was over. Councillor Hutten rose from his desk and said "May be I should be short after he was ruled out of order." Councillors get up steam on steam locomotive idea

Lindsay council members have got their boilers all fired up again for the idea of getting a steam locomotive as a permanent attraction in Lindsay. Renewed enthusiasm in the project stemmed from the main steam locomotive excursion to Lindsay on Sunday.

The idea was broached by Councillor Gordon Pepper, who felt that the town should "retain part of our heritage for posterity." A motion that the council suggest to the county's Historical Society to investigate the possibility was carried.

Discussion then centered around the cost of the project and potential danger from vandalism. Reference was made to the discussion council had about two years ago on the same project when Councillor DeGroot advocated obtaining a steam locomotive as a museum piece.

Previously, Mr. Pepper's motion, Mayor Holm commented on the steam locomotive idea.

Noticed along the way

THAT

A new broom may sweep clean but it can also kick up quite a dust.

The Coboconk unit of the Canadian Cancer Society is reported to have been the first district to complete their objective in the current campaign for funds. What's more returns show it went almost 100 per cent over its objective.

There was no unemployment problem for those who lived in the realm of a certain Turkish Sultan before the turn of the century. Long-time Lindsay resident Art Beall has come up with an 1875 copy of "The Nation", a Toronto publication which bears out this statement. The old boy—the sultan, that is—had no less than 5,500 servants, 500 kitchen hands, 400 stable employees, 400 musicians, 300 doorkeepers and 1200 inmates in his harem. This was not to mention a menagerie which kept 250 people on the go and the sultan himself had a stable of 600 horses. As you can guess he visited the menagerie every day. He probably used the menagerie as an escape from household routine much the same as the modern fisherman gets away from it all by taking off for some secluded lake or stream.

Talking about menageries, a local lady says she thought she had bumped into one on her way home the other night. She says she was walking along the street when two dogs came at her menacingly. Beating a hasty retreat, she returned to her friends home who called police. The law obligingly saw her safely home. She said: "I think we have a real courteous police force here." ... And who could argue with that?

Sometimes a person would give their kid a cork for a feather or a cork. . . . Such was the case last week when a charming Girl Guide called at the door and announced she was taking part in a scavenger hunt. In order to make the hunt a success it was necessary for her to get either a feather or a cork. Well sir, there wasn't a cork in the place (everything's plastic and screwtop these days) and the bundle of pheasant feathers which were always kept on hand for such occasions was nowhere to be seen. The Guide's words were benediction, hard put to think of where to look next when he suddenly remembered a feather he once got in his hat and presto, the problem was solved. Of course he has no feather in his hat now but the Guide went away happy and who knows, someone may come along one of these days and say "that's a feather in your hat" and he'll be all set again.

The name of another former newspaperman is in the news today. Former publisher of the Watchman-Warrior S. R. Pitts was presented with a silver tray from the staff of the Watchman-Warrior on the occasion of his retirement. The presentation was made by still another long-time newspaperman - Ford Moynes. The Watchman-Warrior has been purchased by Oshawa interests which have installed a former Toronto newspaperman, Jas. Hornick as publisher.

Lindsay's RMH taking part in National Hospital Day

Lindsey's Ros Memorial Hospital will be participating in National Hospital Day next Friday.

Announcing this, Eric Freeman, administrator of the Ros Memorial Hospital, emphasized that hospital care is not a luxury, but a necessity by people, that it is not something which can be automated in an attempt to reduce costs. "We are not neglecting attention to the fact during 1981, Ontario citizens will receive insured hospital services worth over $1,000,000,000. Of this total, approximately 70%, or $170,000,000, will be utilized in the payment of the wages for hospital personnel.

When asked if the Ros Memorial Hospital had any difficulties in the past, Freeman stated that at the present time the hospital has been fortunate in being able to meet the needs of its immediate needs. "However," he continued, "we cannot afford to continue our current level of service. We must think of the future." The Administrator pointed out that three factors are the most important in the demand for hospital services: comprehensive hospital insurance, the ability to finance the care they need; secondly as additional services and treatment techniques are developed, the need to finance the care they need.

"A highly skilled profession and technical staff—the people who provide the hands that help to heal—is the most important element of the hospital. One of the up-to-date care and treatment clinicians expect our hospitals to provide," said Mr. Freeborn. "That is why we are attempting during our National Hospital Day observation to focus attention on the to the many thousands of dedicated people who are directly responsible for the provision of hospital service."

Mr. Freeborn stressed that citizens will respond accordingly with the proper facilities. In the course of their International Hospital Day observance, the Womens Auxiliary of the Ross Memorial Hospital will be holding their annual Florence Nightingale tea in Cambridge Hall, Cambridge St. United Church next Friday afternoon.

OPTIMISM MEALS AS FAST BEGINS 13th YEAR

Says future holds promise better things

Only limited by own viewpoint and capacities

Premier Leslie M. Frost has embarked on his 13th year as head of Ontario's government in the spirit of optimism. Asked by "The Post" how he regarded the future in the light of current turbulent world conditions, Mr. Frost said "The future is just as good as the past, only better. It is only limited by our own viewpoint and capacity."

Just back from a trip to Europe, Mr. Frost recalled that his terms a premier of the province had been once which permitted him to witness tremendous developments and expansion.

The premier recalled that it was early in his premiership that he launched big ships—tankers—to transport western oil from the head of the lakes to Ontario's ports. They have all been abandoned in that short time with the advent some three years ago of the Trans-Canada pipeline," he said, noting that this was just one illustration of the changes which have taken place in a dozen years.

Campaigning for Presidency

Expanding interest cited

Short range commercial air traffic is not practical, but small communities like Lindsay should be providing for the expanding experience in private flying. This is the opinion of Ross Smyth of Trans Canada Airlines public relations department. Mr. Smyth, who is Supervisor of TCA's Sookers Service, was guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Lindsay Lions Club Tuesday night.

Mr. Smyth suggested that small airports for private planes should be built up on a regional basis, and felt that the town size of Lindsay should have a great interest in something along that line. "Private planes far outnumber commercial airlines," he said, and interest in private flying, both by companies, and individuals is mounting daily.

Mr. Smyth opened his speech by reviewing the history of flying.

"John to public opinion," he said, "The Wright brothers were not the first men to fly." He said various men had been making balloon flights for over 100 years before that. "The Wright brothers made the first successful powered flight," he said.

Shortly after the war, when converted Lancaster bombers were being used for trans-Atlantic runs, 1,500 documents had to be filled out for every 10 passengers which was all the planes could carry. He explained that this was due to the lack of communication between government departments at that time.

He said the term "jet age" was really a misnomer and that "turbinage age" is more correct. "Turbinage age" is more correct, he said, because jet planes are actually jet turbine engines. "TCA hopes to be the first trans-continental airline to have a complete turbine system" he said. He discussed the company's excellent profit record as a crown corporation, and also its new fare system. "That," he said, "was arrived at after a thorough study, and resulted in lower fares for long flights, and higher fares for short flights, with medium fares remaining about the same."

He mentioned a supersonic five year away - but it will probably be ten years because of the cost of the "barrier," he predicted that in 1970, a person will be able to cross the world in one hour, and will probably take that long to get to the airport," he quipped.

As an illustration of the growth of flight, Mr. Smyth stated that over 100 million passengers flew on the airlines of the western world last year.

$1,200 annual pension ridiculous in this day and age - Mayor Holtom

"A maximum pension of $1,200 for civil employees is ridiculous in this day and age," Mayor J. Holtom told a meeting of wage commissioners at Lindsay.

Mayor Holtom made the remark during a discussion on a wage agreement between the commission and some of its employees. He said the town was going to review the pension plan now in effect. "Some of the employees feel they are not adequately," he declared.

Expressing his opinion on the subject, his workshop said he felt the pension plan covering low employees was too rigid and doesn't go enough.

NOTICED . . . along the way

Rural Interest in Lindsay Central Exhibition's annual show has been greatly increased through the use of advance price lists. Such is the word from exhibition manager Newton G. Wilson as he announces the revision of price lists for the ladies' division, agricultural products and rural and urban school sections. The committees governing these sections have, he declares, spent a great deal of time revising the price lists which are now available for sale. Mr. Wilson says considerably higher prices are being offered, making them very attractive. He suggests that interested people write or phone the exhibition office for a copy. "This," says he, "will give exhibitors an opportunity to pick out a few of the sections they would like to take part in at their fair and ample time to make the necessary preparations in connections with exhibits."

COOKING COMMENTS
Cucumbers, egg or sliced and soaked in beet juice, may be used to garnish salads, points out the Food and Nutrition Department, Macdonald Institute, Guelph. Lettuce cucumbers stand in best juice for 30 minutes, chill. The cucumber "meat" turns pink out the seeds remain green.

Let's make mashed potatoes can be shaped, rolled in corn flakes, and baked in a greased pan at 375 degrees F. for 15 minutes, advises the Food and Nutrition Department, Macdonald Institute, Guelph. Serve piping hot, they are delicious.

Soils (brown) soft bread crumbs, sprinkled with poultry seasonings, in butter until crisp and golden brown. Add a touch of green greens and toss with a tangy salad dressing, suggests the Food and Nutrition Department, Macdonald Institute, Guelph.

Ground meat can be served economically in a variety of ways. Make individual meat loaves in muffin tins, suggest the Food and Nutrition Department, Macdonald Institute, Guelph. Or prepare "Surprises" — Meat loaf, pack half the meat mixture in the pan, place hard-cooked eggs end-to-end down the centre of the pan; cover well with remaining meat mixture. The usual time and cooking temperature will still apply.

Make your own shoe rack by nailing a metal curtain rod on the back of your closet door. Hang your shoes by their heels over this rod. If necessary, use the whole back of the closet door, nailing several rods one below the other and allowing sufficient space between the rows so that your shoes won't touch.

Predict increased harvest fall wheat in Victoria

Wheat conditions in Ontario during April were cold, wet and backward. This prevented most farmers from harvesting the land and resulted in very slow growth of grains, fall wheat and hay and clover crops. That's the word from the Ontario Dept. of Agriculture this week.

A five per cent increase in average harvested yield of fall wheat this year, over last year is predicted in Victoria County. The area is tied with South Simcoe, which is also predicting a five per cent increase.

The department's crop report goes on to state:

Seeding of spring grains was practically completed in Essex and Kent counties, and 40% completed in Lambton county before the heavy rain in April, but in most other counties of old Ontario seeding varied from all to less than 10% as May 1st. Rainy weather during the first week of May further delayed this operation. Temperatures, however, warmed up very considerably on May 4th, and if fairly clear weather conditions prevail seeding of spring grains will go ahead very rapidly and should be completed except on very heavy or poorly drained soils in Old Ontario by May 20th, and in northern Ontario by the end of the month. Spring grain seeding operations in old Ontario, except for Essex and Kent, at the present time are approximately two weeks later than normal. Owing to very dry conditions last fall, and a light fall of snow during the winter, soil moisture reserves were low in most parts of the province this spring, but the frequent rains during April have greatly improved this situation. Present prospects for the year prevailing. The average of fall wheat, to be harvested this summer is considered to show a considerable increase over the average harvested a year ago. Agricultural Representatives indicate increases for 1961 from 1960 at 100% or more in Essex County, 40% in Lambton, 25% in Ontario, and 20% in Kent, 15% in North Simcoe and Ontario county; 10% in Lennox-Addington and Russell, 5% in South Simcoe and Lambton; 3% in Wentworth.

"Both established fields and new seedlings of all hay crops generally came through the winter with a minimum amount of winter killing. There has been little growth to date and warm, sunny weather conditions, followed by a small number of young beef cattle or sheep had been turned out to pasture at the end of March just now. Livestock were being barn fed

Sharon Temple Museum

Three hundred and sixty-five days did it take the Davidites to make this wonderful ark, choosing the beautiful inland walnut of which it is made with the utmost care, and putting it together with exquisite workmanship by hand, so that like Solomon's Temple "There was neither hammer nor axe nor tool of iron heard in the house while it was in building."

On square stands at each of the corners there rested little lamps of pure gold, and inside on the cushion there was a Bible, but of both lamps and Bible disappeared long ago.

A symbol of peace is carried out everywhere in the main building. The arches above the ark represent the rainbow — for every part of the architecture of the strange building is symbolic.

Three stores are emblematic of the Trinity, and the square base means "square dealing with all the world."

The doors on east, west, south and north mean that people should come in from every point of the compass on equal footing; the equal number of windows on each side of every door that the light of the gospel should go to all people; and when, on those September nights so long ago the Children of Peace watched with heart-felt eyes the light of the candles leap up and shine out over wooded hill and plain, they looked forward earnestly, devoutly to the time when the light of the Prince of Peace should illumine every dark corner of the broad earth.

The whole building is in a good state of preservation, as evidenced by the sound flooring which is one and three-quarters inches thick, and by the condition of all the woodwork.

All the fastenings of the doors and windows are of wrought iron welded by hand, and are artistic. Perhaps most wonderful of all is the preservation of the shingles, which after nearly a century are still practically free from decay by means of glass.

The winter nights of 1818 and 19 were terrible ones in Sharon, for then the Davidites' char was in its fullest tide of medical study. Many evenings during the winter, sleighs of young people drove to the meeting house, where the choir met in the room above, and joined in the singing.

These same visitors, young and old, crowded to the feast following the illumination in speaking of these events, Mr. Abraham Wilson said:

"For those days and times, the feast were well-attended. I have known three hundred and sixty-five sit down at one time to the dinner, and then the tables would often be filled the second time."

The tables were spread in the meeting house and served by white-robed girls, who hurried in with platters of roast and butter, cheese and plum cake, pie and tea, the hungry diners partaking while the music played outside on the band.

The September and Christmas feasts were a little different from that of June as given above. At these feasts the housewives provided roast (owl, bread and butter, "pound" cake, cheese and raspberry sauce).

The little boy never asked for financial assistance outside the congregation. During the earlier years, it was the custom for a number to go to Toronto and Markham Township to hold Sunday School. David Wilson was the only minister they ever saw, and he gave his services free.

Any surplus above that needed to keep the church in repair was always given to the poor. Mr. Wilson once wrote: "Our wants are few and simple," and the lives of the people proved the truth of this assertion.

The little congregation — numbering nearly a hundred — grew and, living, true upright lives in the midst of the community, giving help to the poorer ones about.

On January 18, 1866, at the age of 87 years, 7 months and 12 days, David Wilson passed away. He had proved to be a leader who could not cause and energize the people that here in the wilderness, schools were organized, music given a prominent place, and remarkable structures built.

He was laid to rest beside his wife in the cemetery, a mile south of Sharon.

People who live alone often eat tea-and-toast instead of a carefully balanced meal. If it is a matter of economy, the variety meat, whole grain cereals, powdered skim milk and green and yellow vegetables will supply nutrients needed both by old and young people, at restorable prices.

The minutes of the last meeting which was the annual meeting were read. Reports were received from the treasurer and the flower convener. The roll call was answered by naming the garden flower with which they had the most success. There was a reminder given of the District Annual to be held at Bobcaygeon in the Parish Hall. Delegates are going from the branch. A receipt was received for money sent to the Cancer Fund. Rolled white cotton bandages were collected for the cancer society, and Mrs. H. Shaw was kind enough to promise to deliver them.

EDITORIAL . . .

THAT SEASON IS UPON US . . .

That season when people take to the lake and is upon us and tragedy has struck one Lindsay family with the death of a two-year-old child. The misadventure will have the effect of marking the summer's pleasure for the family.

On Friday night the picnic fishing season, a young man decided to dive into the Trent Canal at the Young Street North bridge.

Just after opening his eyes, he had the experience, except to swimmer, of being pulled down to the bottom of the water with some speculation among thoughtful people who happened to be present.

For a thing which occurred to those who observed the incident was the fact that had the lad got into difficulty, about the only thing that could have been done, apart from diving, would have been to throw a life preserver around in his direction. . . . There wasn't a life preserver around the place. Scores of people were fishing there and any of them could have come to the rescue. And there have been accidents at the mercy of the canal or river, unless there happened to be a brave and strong swimmer in the crowd.

At a place as popular as the canal and Linking Scopes River in the summertime should have available life saving equipment. It would require little to have a project for every town, the Trent Canal System or some service organization.

EVERY ONCE IN A WHILE . . .

Every once in a while a report like the one to follow appears in the press but it doesn't usually have nearly as much impact on readers as it should. It is usually a report on a case which "it can happen here" sort of reasoning. However, since this Lindsay has a "local" flavor, the report is more likely to be read with interest. The victim's employment may be of interest to some, but the fact that others who might attempt to employ similar questionable means of raising money. Here is the press report and further details.

On the morning of Wednesday, June 3, 1958, at a small village north of here, yesterday admitted taking 25 persons — mostly farmers — out of $14,000 in the past three days. He will be sentenced next week.

Inspector James Ekinke, head of the O.P. racket squad, told Magistrate R. B. Baxter that only 25 persons were brought through, though there were 50 charges because the Summers sometimes went out to the same victim once or twice.

At the court clerk heard an hour to read the 35 charges.

Summers, the father of three, usually outfitted his victims with bar stories, said Ekinke and was fined $1,000 and one.

The inspector said:

"Newcastle lawyer Richard Lovell gave Summers $100 each for hearing on Summers' mother required an operation."

"Albert Rounis, an old son who was supposed to have for an on the head with a baseball bat. He received a victim as security." This said Summers, was a Stradivarius violin player. He had been arrested since he received him $1,200. A check with an expert indicated the instrument was worth $25.

Summers was fined $1,000 from a farmer the day after the farmer's wife was buried. Summers told him his own wife had just been killed in a car accident and his son had lost a leg.

"An Ontario farmer drove Summers to the bank to let him have $1,000 in a hurry after hearing how his son had lost one eye and urgently needed an operation on the other."

"If the victims insisted on security, Summers would take them to see a faithful calf belonging to a neighbor."

WHY NOT DO THE SIMPLE THING?

Last week a fire occurred in Lindsay and was attributed by Fire Chief Arnold Watson to over-feeding of an electric circuit. This happened because the increasing fire companies throughout electrified Ontario despite repeated warnings from the people who supply electricity and those concerned with prevention.

It is a simple matter to ascertain the correct fusing to use in any given situation. Why do the simple thing and check fusing on various circuits throughout the house, store or factory to make sure it is within the prescribed limits? Failure to do so is like sitting on a time bomb—the chances are if you sit there long enough, something disastrous will happen.

ONE CHILD LOST ITS LIFE

A child was killed in Bobcaygeon district last week to emphasize the need for caution in another sphere. . . . A child lost its life, reportedly as a result of drinking water from a bottle or container which had been placed in the garbage. Other children in the same family had a close brush with death as a result of the discovery of the bottles.

Children are naturally curious and there is perhaps nothing more fascinating to a child than a bottle or pill box with their contents partially full of liquid. They are naturally "tamperers" without the ability to distinguish the harmless from the harmful, sometimes lethal, substance. Their safety in this regard depends entirely on you. By so adults and here again parents can take the simple step to carry out—dispose of the contents of medicine containers before disposing of the containers themselves and keep household medicine well hidden.

This is "Water Safety Week" in Ontario and the Canadian Red Cross Society has appealed for support in its efforts to promote safety around and on water.

With the advent of the "water safety" week of suggestions to help avoid personal tragedy at your cottage, may help avoid personal grief if carefully addressed to you.

1. If your shoreline has an uneven bottom, mark off the shallow safe part with floats or markers.

2. Be sure to close off the swimming area with a net so you can supervise it. An accident doesn't take long to happen.

Reports and Remarks...

from the House of Bishops of the Ecclesiastical Province of Ontario to all clergy of the Anglican Church of Canada within their jurisdiction.

The assembled Anglican Bishops of the Province of Ontario, desire to express our wholehearted support for the efforts of the Department of Education, public schools of our province. We believe that no nation can hope to survive, unless the spiritual and moral principles of Christianity are firmly established in each generation, preferably along with the other elements of the school curriculum. We commend the legislature of our Province for its recently passed Education Act.

We welcome the introduction of the plan, and for their steady support of it throughout the year.

We are anxious to continue our membership with the other members of the Anglican Communion towards the improvement of the present text books in our schools. We are also eager to protect the right of minority groups. We are also eager to support the efforts of the Department of Education, public schools of our province. We believe that no nation can hope to survive, unless the spiritual and moral principles of Christianity are firmly established in each generation, preferably along with the other elements of the school curriculum. We commend the legislature of our Province for its recently passed Education Act.

Our thanks are also extended to the Principals of the Public Schools for their thoughtful courtesies, to many of their teachers who have so ably taught the course along with their other subjects, and to the local School Trustees for their impartial application of the 1944 Regulations. At the same time, we are also eager to support the efforts of the Department of Education, public schools of our province. We believe that no nation can hope to survive, unless the spiritual and moral principles of Christianity are firmly established in each generation, preferably along with the other elements of the school curriculum. We commend the legislature of our Province for its recently passed Education Act.

PHYSICAL FITNESS AT HOME

President Kennedy of the United States, has expressed a keen interest in the physical fitness of his people.

In some countries people are more physically fit than others because of their way of life, rather than the amount of voluntary exercise which they engage in.

Much can be said for a way of life which is productive and at the same time keeps one physically fit, by contrast to exercising for fitness alone, desirable as that may be.

We have a lot of way towards sports since the days of the American pioneer, who was physically fit by the nature of the way he lived. We have in gardening and other activities that improves our home properties, all the ingredients for keeping fit, if we but take the time to do it. Gardening one can plant and beautify and maintain his property so that its resale value increases, thus making the garden exercise economically productive. Gardening also has the advantage of indoor and outdoor pleasure, not much beats "garden living."

So let's include gardening and other do-it-yourself home improvements in our physical fitness programs, rather than trying something like individual calisthenics, which tend to become boring after a few days. Garden your way to a closer and more constant state of fitness. The medical profession recommends more of pleasure for both physical and mental health, thus telling us kind of a story when they are producing a more valuable home property to boot.

FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY AND COMPULSORY INSURANCE

That the financial responsibility law which has been introduced in the Quebec Legislature is long overdue has been demonstrated by figures presented since Bill 48 was tabled in the Legislature. That fifty per cent of the cars in the province have not been insured.

It is very easy to visualize what the effects of such a situation have been. There are few people who have not been direct sufferers, or who, at least, have relatives or friends that have been victims of the uninsured motorist.

Already the inevitable complaint is being heard that the legislation means compulsory insurance. Nothing, of course, could be further from the facts, as evidenced by the fact that while motor insurance companies have been pressing over a long period of years for a financial responsibility law in Quebec which would

3. Have a rope or ringuoy and a paddle within easy reach on a dock to assist a tired swimmer. Even a Editorial say that a rope or a ladder can save a life.

4. Have a life jacket for every nonswimmer and extra for every good swimmer. A good life jacket is a sound investment.

5. Teach the Hooper-Liston Method resuscitation of drowning victims to members of the family, and use an instruction sheet on your boat house as a reminder.

Make These Rules In Your Family:

1. Children should be kept in and out with parents before going off for a swim.

2. Do not permit swimming at night, unless the water is well lighted and completely familiar to all swimmers.

3. Do not permit any member of the family to water skid without wearing a life jacket. It is a fact, that a child's accident can happen before a boat has time to get back.

Always Remember:

1. Never leave small children alone on a beach or dock.

2. Keep out of and off the water during an electric storm.

3. If children play with plastic toys, be in the water with them and don't let them get out of your reach.

4. A gust of wind can send them out into deep water in no time.

5. If a boat capsizes, hang on!

6. The time for saving drowning something is when the children are safely in the cottage having a rest, not playing on the dock.

Compulsory Insurance, where it has been effected in some states of the Union, has been nothing but a hardship to the insurance companies and to the state governments as well; and it has not had the desired effect of protecting the public against the irresponsible automobile driver.

On the other hand, financial responsibility legislation, when accomplished by an unsatisfactory judgment found — as in the Bill now before the Quebec Legislature — has worked out in an eminently satisfactory manner where it has been in force.

Indirectly, of course, financial responsibility law imposes upon the majority of drivers the necessity of carrying adequate insurance if he or she is to avoid trouble. From the point of view of the insurance industry, however, it means that the insurance company must be able to pay the claims, rather than the careless, inefficient and irresponsible driver who is a public menace — and there are more of them than would be imagined — unless they are insured.

It would, of course, be desirable if the financial responsibility legislation were accompanied by more stringent licensing regulations and stricter enforcement of the traffic laws. But the provinces have been waiting for this over a long period, with not too much luck however.

GOES BACK TO OLD TESTAMENT TIMES

One of the world's first references to artificial respiration comes from the Old Testament, where the prophet Isaiah saved the life of a boy who had stopped breathing, by repeatedly laying his weight on him and removing it. Some of the other methods tried in the past have been to pick on the chest of a victim, in the belief that he would give an involuntary gasp and start breathing again!

Today's methods are not so drastic and the basic knowledge has helped to save many lives. Last year, 75,000 people took advantage of the free two hour course during St. John Ambulance "Save-Life" Week. Two students, last year, from a new-found knowledge of the work following the course and were able to save the lives of two nearly-drowned persons.

This week has been the longest in St. John Ambulance "Save-Life" Week and classes will be held in centres all over the Province. There can be a few better investments than the time it takes to learn to save life. Information on where the classes are being held, call the nearest St. John Ambulance office. —St. John Ambulance, (Ont. Council).

Secretary for the Board of Governors of the Rose Memorial Hospital—Col. R. I. Moore, criticized the laxity of many prominent merchants on Kent Street in showing little interest in the hospital Wednesday night. Addressing the annual meeting of the Rose Memorial Hospital Association, held in the town hall, Col. Moore noted that many merchants in town have as yet made no donations toward the cost of the new building.

"We will still need more money to equip the renovated building," he said.

About 100 persons turned out for the occasion, and board members seated with satisfaction with the response.

Return Representatives

Highlight of the agenda was the election of out of town members elected by the association, whose terms expire this year. The two are Dr. J. W. Fennell and Dr. J. C. Fennell of Fenelon Falls. Both were returned for three-year terms. A third name on the nomination slate was Eric Fennell of Fenelon Falls.

The date of the meeting missed by only two days coinciding with nationally celebrated Hospital Day, on Fennell's birthday.

Brown broke the news to the annual meeting of the Ontario Medical Association. But, he said, researchers have not been able to rid the vaccine of undesirable side-effects such as fever and rashes. He said prospects that these can be wiped out are "highly favourable."

English poet Walter De La Mare said: "Not the briefest moment . . . yours or mine . . . can ever come again."

May has been a month of "weather" ... a fickle, changeable weather with everything from snow and rain to balmy 80-degree temperatures. The snow above was recorded within a single hour on a day in May when nature had a field day. At 9 a.m. on this particular May day the ground, rooftops and shrubs were covered with snow—an hour later the warm sun had erased almost every trace. Whatever else may be said of the weather around Lindsay, no one can complain that it lacks variety.

Three fire house fire at midnight

Mount Pleasant — A midnight fire sent a mother and her two small children fleeing to safety through a window Friday. They made their escape when fire struck their home and destroyed the house before firemen could reach the scene. Mount Pleasant is southeast of Omenes and the Omenes fire brigade was summoned.

Mrs. David Muller, son David, 2 1/2, and a seven-month-old daughter were taken in by neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Knapp. Mr. Muller, a farmer, was attending a sale at Omenes when the fire broke out.

Only some clothing hanging on a clothesline was saved. The house — the old Thomas Graham home — was completely gutted. The Mullers lived in the brick home less than a year.

The direction of winds prevented barns on the property from catching fire.

The property is on the Emily-Cavan Township boundary about a mile north of Mount Pleasant. Neighbors, including Mrs. Eric McLean, are seeking fire clothing and accommodation for the family.

According to reliable sources, the sewer construction company that has given rise to the loss of thousands of dollars in the project is the Ontario Grid Training School at Bell Run.

... One estimate places the possible loss at between $50,000 and $100,000, depending on the machine rental.

The trouble spot on the project has been where the sewer crosses the highway near the intersection of the Jennings farm, north of Lindsay, on Old Highway 38.

PROTECT ROSE BUSHES
This year, late May is the time to spray rose bushes. Roses are subject to many diseases and insect pests. Spraying or dusting is necessary to keep the foliage clean, and the plants productive. Although damage from black spot, a fungus infection, is not apparent until late May or June, it is important to prevent this disease.

Professor J. Taylor, Director of Horticulture, O.A.C., says best results are obtained when a protective film of spray or dust is present on the foliage when it is most etheric in color or dew. This is because black spot infection occurs if the foliage is damp.

HOW CAN I ???
By Anne Adams
Q. How can I do about some old stains on one of my rugs?

A. The best way I know of to remove these is to dampen a cloth with some cleaning fluid, and then begin rubbing around the edges of the stain, working toward the middle, changing to a clean portion of the rag as one part becomes soiled.

Q. How can I facilitate the skinning of tomatoes?

A. By placing the tomatoes in a basin, pouring some boiling water over them, and letting stand for a minute or so. You will then find that the skins can be removed with a minimum of trouble.

Q. How can I clean and freshen black satin or morel shoes?

A. By rubbing briskly with a cloth that has been cut up in ambonias and thoroughly wrung out.

This Day

Today is Wednesday, May 24, the 144th day of the year with 221 more to follow in 1961.

The moon is approaching its full phase.

On this day in history: In 1926, Peter Minuit bought the island of Manhattan for the Indians for the equivalent of 24 dollars.

In 1919 Queen Victoria was born.

In 1844, Samuel L. B. More,

In Washington, sent the first telegraph message to his associate in Baltimore. The message: "What hath God wrought!"

In 1920, reduction in postal rates between Canada and France came into effect by the signing of a new postal convention.

THOUGHT FOR TODAY
Russian author Dostoyevsky said "The true security is to be found in social solidarity rather than in isolated individual effort."

Ted Wieand may return to New York Yankees on round trip ticket

United Press International The Yankees. It's a good thing that The victory moved the Bruce Henry, road secretary Virginians to within 2 1/2 of the New York Yankees, pre-games of the first-place Co-sented pitcher Ted Wieand Tuesday night. The Rochester parent club and him to Red Wings downed the Charlestown Marlins, 3-2, and the Syracuse Chiefs beat the Jersey City Jereys, 7-5, in other Tuesday night games.

It's an act that could earn Henry the Yankees' annual "award for foreign" and also could save the 27-year-old right-hander the trouble of purchasing a ticket back to New York within the next few days.

The Yankees are screaming for pitching help and they could do worse than recalling who Tuesday night returned in his second straight complete-game victory when he hurled the Virginians to a 2-1 win over the Buffalo Bisons. Wieand has allowed only three runs and 10 hits in the two games he was pitched for needed.

Lindsay Lions to witness spectacular Kingston parade

Lindsay Lions Club members are going to see something spectacular in the way of parade.

They will be among the 2,500 people gathering for the District A convention of the club which features a mammoth parade on Sunday afternoon. The parade moves off at 2 p.m. and the last float won't leave the marshalling grounds until 3.45 p.m. It will include between 40 and 50 bands along with bands of beautiful majorettes. The five-day convention embraces Ontario and Quebec clubs and among those expected to attend from Lindsay are Deputy district governor elect Guy Bassman, Morris Tamblin.

Conserve for survival, Kiwanians are urged

"Conservation for Survival" ad," she said. "And we also need the topic of an address given to the Lindsay Kiwanian Club by Mrs. J. A. Nornalbi, president of the club, on the subject of conservation, Tuesday, June 1st." The speaker is a graduate of the University of Toronto and a former teacher. She was introduced by the Peterborough Parks Board President Gerald Phelps. Mrs. Nornalbi stressed that in a growing economy and increasing population, the need for conserving our water supply is much greater. She and safety rules are followed, noted that much of the water serious accidents may occur, supply is polluted and, last, citizens should ride single file. Water is being used through on the right side of the road, finding new uses for water, observe all traffic lights and give hand signals when necessary. "More reforestation is necessary."

other speakers had said, stated that the physical and mental fitness and altitude of the team had been superior to that of their opponents and that the lightest play-off series had been with the team in top physical and mental condition.

The convenor of the Ontario Rural Hockey Association, Bruce Clayton of Woodville, told the assembly that the ORHA had been formed in 1943 and in those eighteen years, the trophy had been won by a team from this local league. Mr. Clayton also told the team that in the coming year they would have to play in the "B" classification since the ORHA had a rule prohibiting a team from winning the trophy in three consecutive years. He then presented the J. H. Roberts Trophy to the team captain, Don Brooks. Don Brooks, in his acceptance, thanked the fans for their support throughout the season, effective treatment of all members of the team and the executive, after the banquet, many of the guests went to a dance in honour of the hockey team, for his prompt and individual trophies to the members.

LINDSAY'S COLOURFUL RAILWAY HISTORY RECALLED IN MAY 19'S ADRESS

22 trains once moved through here daily

Lindsay, long known as a railroad town, had some of its great history recalled on the occasion of the steam-powered CNLT excursion to Lindsay a Mayor Joseph Holton presented a history of railroading in Lindsay which had no doubt had interest for the many people who were in the present for the event.

Here is Lindsay's railroad history as chronicled by his workshop:

It was on Oct. 16, 1857 that the first train came to Lindsay—over the Port Hope and Lindsay Railway, 104 years ago.

"This town was a significant part of the great network between Kawartha and Haliburton area—because the railroads opened up the Lindsay area for the settlers and for the lumbering and farming industries.

"Perry Railway was built to Lindsay, 1871, the first line from Toronto. It was called the Toronto and Nipissing Railway and for many years it was called up at Cobocook—about thirty miles north of here.

"The Junior choir sang 'Working Together' and the Senior Choir's anthem was 'Suffer Little Children to Come Unto Me' directed by Mrs. Reg Edmunds, with Mrs. Christine Brown at the organ.

Reading the scripture lessons were Douglas Neils, Bob Edmunds and Lynda Davidson with Patricia Davidson and Ray Porteous leading in prayer.

Rev. G. R. Richardson's sermon was based on 'Stewardship in The Family'.

Mother's Day service

Bethany (PNS) — Members of the Sunday School took part in the Christian Family Day Service in the United Church, with Bar Weatherill S. S. Supt. in charge.

Rev. G. R. Richardson's sermon was based on 'Stewardship in The Family'.

The reason

People making long distance calls to Lindsay or Haliburton these days may be curious as to why the Lindsay area is so important to the people who live there.

The reason is a special survey conducted by the Lindsay, Fenelon Falls and Ontario Railway Association.

This was not enough money two years later this Bylaw was passed as a bonus to another name of the Railway was changed to the Victoria Railway.

The railway was built through the Northern townships and eventually ended up in Lindsay, where it was called up to the village of Lindsay and that today is the

THE WALK THAT NEVER

DID GET STOPPED

"This is the railway on which your train is now parked (Victoria Avenue south).

"The Town of Lindsay granted the company a right of way over Victoria Avenue and in return the railway company was to build a plank sidewalk on one side of the street and in addition was to grade and gravel the street all the way, and 'for ever' I have been chasing our friends of World War II.

"I wonder if the railway can be a good as well as the Board of Work."

"During this period several other ways were built in this area and there were plans for more, railways were coming from everywhere; in fact for a while, it looked as if every town and city in Ontario was going to be hooked into the

GROWTH AND DEVELOPMENT

"1860 - 1900 was a period of growth and development in the Lindsay area, built by railroads. It was the era of the promoter, and the rough railroad days.

"These promoters would come through the municipalities and through the economy of the railroads would bring fame and fortune to the various towns and cities.

Bethal Christians At Bethel United Church in the afternoon Rev. Crawford Christened Carrie Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davidson.

Abraham Lincoln said: 'Importance is not to be made into a principle'.

GRAND OPENING

"Every time someone which would last for many days, or as long as the free will which was given to those days and flowed copiously and with considerable interest for the many people with this development came other problems.

"It was at this time it is recorded in the Council minutes that the Town appointed a

MADE FORTUNES

"A great fortune was made by the promoters and builders of the railways and they have had an example of the generosity of one of these millionaires.

"In 1868 - Whisky - Perry Railway was built to Lindsay, 1871, the first line from Toronto.

It was called the Toronto and Nipissing Railway and for many years it was called up at Cobocook—about thirty miles north of here.

GOAT'S BEARD'S GOOD NAME IS GONE

Goat's Beard was classed as a delicacy in the England of Elizabeth the First. The roots, which were used as a food, were much preferred to parsnips or carrots. The roots were dug up in the fields and used in the winter months they provided the poor man with the food, if not the chief ingredient of the diet.

Small cucumbers bring top prices

To get top prices for pick numbers at Ottawa averaged 100 cents per ton and over-sized cucumbers, the growers $7.24. Prices per pound should harvest them when one $7.84. Prices per pound they are 1/4 to 1 1/4 cents in range from as high as 8 cents, states V. W. Nuttal, cents for the smallest to sale of the Central Experimental 1/4 cent or less for over-sized ones. The variety used is SMO 12.

The Canada Department of SMO 12. Agriculture vegetable crop specialist maintains that a ton of cucumbers in size range and ones for ring and will be left on the vine since they are much as 10 times as much as a ton of cucumbers that are two inches in diameter.

In 1959 and 1960, small cucumbers depends not only on price but also on proportion of the various sized fruits. The latter depends on the efficiency of the pickers and the frequency of picking. Usually they should be picked every two to four days.

It is important that the first fruits be picked when small to medium in size. The first picking may not be profitable, but removing the fruits from the vines boosts later yields.

Census Taking from Coast to Coast Canada Sits for her Portrait

Age? 89. Employment? Retired. M. E. Bennett is one of 800,000 Canadians currently receiving the Old Age Pension. Changes in the age-structure of a population have wide-reaching effects. The census will show the size of Canada's young labour force, the number of retired.

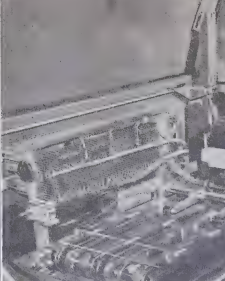

Married? Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lewis have been married for 60 years. His and another 18 million unweary will be asked to answer the nation's portrait. Canada is a land of many nationalities and wide cultural variety. The census will assess these varying contributions.

Employed last week? To Mrs. Catherine Cowan, 60 years a housewife, woman's work is never done. The ten questions on employment in the 1961 census will show which industries have expanded, which declined, hence, where likely areas of employment will exist in next decade.

Ethnic or cultural group? Thomas Mulligan has no trouble with this one. His and another 18 million unweary will be asked to answer the nation's portrait. Canada is a land of many nationalities and wide cultural variety. The census will assess these varying contributions.

A nation is her people. To paint a portrait of a nation, one must know her people. A census is, first of all, millions of individual interviews. Here, at Carleton Lodge near Ottawa, the census begins. For these people, a census is nothing new; they've seen seven or eight of them.

Here at last the picture of a nation begins. The millions of tiny sketches are sorted, analyzed, and finally united into one vast mosaic of the Canadian people. This is the giant "brain" recently unveiled at the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. Its electronic document "reader" - only one in Canada's nine main Confederation. Decisions based on census data will affect the lives of all Canadians for the next decade. These interviews, when people, provide the essential working sketches for the portrait of a nation.

the world - can scan documents for 600 persons each minute, converting them in dots on paper, which the computer files in its memory. Publishing of the census will begin this year. By December, 1962, most of the nation's portrait will be finished.

Penelons Link to Social-Hatred

Day-long meeting called

A thorough airing of many viewpoints on civil defence, now under emergency planning, is expected here today. Friday, Wednesday, May 20th is the date set for a day-long meeting to discuss the matter completely.

And Haliburton County Council will have a joint meeting, and Mayor Joe Holton of Lindsay programme will be present from Toronto. This will be headed by Wallace Bates, a former Lindsay resident, whose father was a CDR engineer here for many years.

Main item under discussion will be the setting up of an EMO area which will take in the area of both Victoria and Haliburton counties, with the costs shared respectively.

Communications have been going on between the two counties for several months—particularly after the new financial assistance programme was introduced by the provincial and federal governments. Under this, the federal government pays 75 per cent of the cost, the provincial government 10 per cent, and the municipality 15 per cent of 38 cents per capita. It would mean a total budget of $9,328.35 with Victoria contributing $6,999 and Haliburton paying $233.20. The money would be used for the purchase of equipment, co-ordinator, and supply necessary equipment.

C of C denies it's preparing new brochure

Chamber of Commerce President Scott has denied that the Chamber is planning to print an industrial brochure.

With a "Post" reporter, Mr. Scott said the Chamber has been asked to prepare an industrial brochure and information about Lindsay, which it hopes to compile and distribute.

But it certainly is not in the class of an industrial brochure, he said. "The brochure would be more of 'speculation than fact' and the information would be on mimeographed sheets only, fact."

Why you change tractor oil

It's a fact that the dirty engine is not a reliable guide that it's time to change the oil. To say G. Maggo, Ontario Department of Agriculture engineering extension officer.

"Most tractor engines today use the detergent oil, a type of motor oil. It's dirty looking the first time you look at your oil after it has been changed," says Maggo.

Detergent means "cleaning ability," he explains. This type of oil keeps dirt and sludge from accumulating suspended in the oil so they will not settle out and form varnish and carbon deposits on piston skirts, upper ring grooves, valve stems, and other critical engine parts.

One way the color of your oil can't be used as a guide for oil change. When the oil becomes overloaded, this dirt collects in the oil pan, causing a visual engine check, causing excessive wear and poor performance. The only way to remove these harmful deposits is by changing the crankcase oil, he explains.

If the oil pressure gauge is observed, not because the oil has no further lubricating ability, but because the accumulation of harmful deposits in suspension in the oil.

Flying saucer sighted but no need to worry

A flying saucer has been sighted at Toronto's Malton airport, but officials explain they're nothing to worry about.

They're all coming to work at the end of the next week. Eyebrows were raised yesterday when the flying saucer was seen at Malton.

The flying saucer - also called a saucer-shaped object - was seen by a series of small jet engines made by Orenda engines, a sister company of Avco.

The 15-foot wide Avco is one of two saucers currently being developed around Toronto. The other project, also to be developed, is a "saucer-plane" which is the first test flight near Hamilton, Ontario.

While the delta plane is being developed, the 15-foot wide Avco is one of two saucers currently being developed around Toronto.

To measure 26 feet by 42 feet, the new delta building will be built on the site of the old Ontario and a precast concrete structure. The electrical heating and air conditioning will be covered by asphalt shingles.

A June marriage announcement recalls some of Lindsay's earlier public life. It is that of Jerry Shat McLean, daughter of Kitchener to Frances Louella Hall, of the late Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean, Bond St., Mr. McLean was an outcrop on member of the Lindsay Water Commission... Corbett... "Dan" McLean... "Dan" McLean...

Anyone feeling up to scratch these bits may enjoy this one overhead on a bag "It's been quite a long time... I've forgotten the name—where the pop-pies sat up at the white poppies."

The restoration project of the northeast corner of Al and Main is badly in need of a thinning operation to give at least to the trees a chance to develop properly.

Mary S. West of Albert has been in the office for several years but there is no sign to warrant notice of this fact. A second marriage ceremony was held up there for much of the time and through traffic is impossible at all except on the day of the wedding. It might take a chance on bumping across the railway tracks at the point of blockage.

Lindsay Central Exhibition is planning a pre-wedding ceremony which will likely attract widespread interest. Fair manager Newton G. Wilson announced that the fair board is bringing the Don Messer show to Lindsay in 1961. It will be the first television show, rated one of the best in Canada to day and is here where you have a good opportunity to see and meet these performers in person; the manager has a lot of money to spend on a part of an unusual kind but how long the wedding will be kept in a nother and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Madill, hereafter Lindsay was near her home on Church St. Central the day when she saw two dogs attacking a baby black squirrel. She refused the dog and ran away from the dogs and the little creature adopted her as a friend.

Walking up Williams St. north in Thursday evening, the little ball of fur attracted considerable attention as it made her jacket as well as the one on her shoulder, and even made her look up playing hide-and-seek with the dog's companion's coat. Said Heather: "Mother thinks I should like to return to the animal surroundings."

This report from the wire of United Press International is good for a smile on an over-cast day.

Teachers in Northolt, England, felt sorry for the lady who turned up at Eton School wearing a leopardsaid.

But when another and then another in sports and hearing aids, the teachers got suspicious.

The investigation they found that what appeared to be hearing aids actually were earplugs hooked up to transmitters.

There's another story in the news about a man who had been in the and in the incident occurred on the Port of Montreal. Mrs. Lindsay walked into the Port of Montreal, a friend, laid her gloves down and went to carry her gun to the mission. When she had finished the wicket, she went to the gloves and found they were missing. The lady—Margaret Flaherty—said that the gun had been appropriated. Another lady had unsuccessfully watched still as and March 4th as though they were her own. It was not until Mrs. Flaherty expressed dismay over her loss that she observed the misappropriation of the gloves became known. Mrs. Flaherty went by them it was too late to take up the chase. Result: Mrs. Flaherty went home with a new glove. Moral: Never lay down your gloves in a public place—she slips them off or pocket.

Wireworm control in organic soil. The damage done by wireworms in organic soil is such that strong control measures are called for, says J. J. Macdonald, of the Canadian Department of Agriculture Research Laboratory at St. Jean.

Mr. Lafrance says potato tubers are very susceptible to wireworm attack and can be made unmarketable. Other vegetables are attacked and the young plants may be killed by having their roots eaten.

Soil cultivation will reduce the infestation, but not immediately. A single application of one of the recommended insecticides and frequent and thorough cultivation may reduce an infestation considerably.

The insecticides recommended are: dieldrin, 10 per cent granules at 70 pounds per acre; DDT, 50 per cent granules at 140 pounds per acre. They are applied to the soil one week before potatoes are planted, or to the top six inches with a rotary tiller or a disk harrow.

Rate of application: 20 pounds of dieldrin granules or 50 pounds of dieldrin granules or 100 pounds of dieldrin granules will suffice.

Keep the Coffee Hot HOW can you keep coffee hot in an old-fashioned coffee pot without heating the coffee? The answer is simple: strong and hot! One pointer: also answer is suggested by a pointer: I just keep the coffee hot. "A hot cup of coffee is a hot cup of coffee." It's really hot! When the water in the temperature range is normal as long as we cannot heat water beyond 212°F. When this temperature is reached, all additional heat is used to change the water from its liquid state into the water boil. The best which is absorbed by the water but is not passed on to the coffee pot and its contents as long as the temperature is lower than that of the surrounding water. Heat treatment, however, stops as soon as coffee and water have the same temperature, thus when the coffee has been warmed to 212°F. And since no additional heat is applied, the coffee just cools but does not get hotter. The water of the water container, the water bath does not reflect the coffee's content, undisturbed heat of coffee.

Undertake Protein Study

Don W. A. Goodfellow, Minister of Agriculture, has announced that a milk composition study will be undertaken immediately by the Ontario Department of Agriculture.

The study, requested by the dairy industry, will concern it self initially with the protein content of Ontario milk from which solids-not-fat content may be easily established.

Making the announcement Mr. Goodfellow said that he considered the project was of the utmost importance to the dairy industry and that the findings of the study could result in a new method of pricing milk in Ontario and possibly open up new approaches to the breeding of dairy cattle.

Surveys made in other countries indicate that the protein content of milk is subject to wide variations and that it has been demonstrated that the protein content is largely a hereditary factor. It is felt that protein percentages can be improved by selective Ontario.

Protein is not only essential nutritionally, but is important as well from the standpoint of manufactured products such as cheese and powdered milk. The Minister said that on his recent visit to Europe he noted that much work had been done on milk protein in Holland and that a scheme of pricing farmers for milk on a protein basis was already in operation in that country. Since 1958 an increasing number of cows in Holland are on a policy of official protein recording and testing.

The interest of Ontario dairymen in the new study may point the way to the adoption of a similar policy in this province.

Under the plan milk samples will be collected by personnel of the Record of Performance and the Ontario Department of Agriculture. Testing and analysis will be carried out by the Department of Dairy and Animal Husbandry at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph.

Golden Anniversary celebrated by Blackstock couple

Blackstock (PNS)—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnston of Blackstock were "At Home" to their many friends, relatives and neighbours on the occasion of their Golden Wedding anniversary in the beautifully decorated Christian Education room of the United Church.

Among the numerous messages received were congratulations from the Honourable Dr. Herbert Bruce (a distant relative), Prime Minister John Diefenbaker; Leslie Frost, Premier of Ontario; John Yarmolenko, Provincial Secretary; Percy Vivian M.P. for Durham. Telegrams were received from a brother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ferguson, West Bank B.C., Dr. and Mrs. Allen McIntosh, Kelowna, B.C., and from Mrs. Howard Black, of New Mexico, owner of the "Blackstock" brand of apples, where Mr. and Mrs. Johnston spent two months in 1954.

The co-hosts and hostesses were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Avery (Terra Johnston) Tilbury; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Johnston, Belleville; Mr. and Mrs. Neil Johnston, Bolesworth, Manitoba. The couples oldest grandchild, Donna Marie Avery was in charge of the golden guest book.

Pouring tea during the afternoon and evening were Mrs. Chas. Smith, Mrs. Geo. Johnston, Mrs. T. Samuels, Mrs. Russell Munro, Mrs. Chas. Vennings, and Mrs. C. Hill.

Nieces served the guests. The bride's table was centred with a three tiered anniversary cake beautifully decorated with golden leaves and berries and flanked on each side with a bouquet of yellow and white mums.

During the afternoon Mr. Earl Dorell called the group in order and spoke of the fine qualities of character that have made the couple so highly respected through the years. Nearest, Ivan Munro and Harry Johnston made the presentation of a silver rocker and an occasional chair. Two bouquets of 50 yellow mums and a sum of money Mr. and Mrs. Johnston made fitting replies.

Previously when the family had all had dinner at the home of Mr. Earl Dorell the family presented their parents each with a wrist watch. Mr. Dorell gave them two gold cups and saucers.

They received a number of individual gifts.

Four of their seven grand children were present, Donna Marie and Carlyle Avery; Linda and Pearl Johnston; Mr. Geo. Johnston the best man of 50 years ago was present. The bride was the late Annie Ferguson Dorell.

Mrs. W. McKewen's lonely scene of joint meeting

Woodstock, Ont. (CNS)—The joint meeting of Knox Presbyterian W.M.S. and W.W. was held at the home of Mrs. Wm. McKewen, with 19 ladies present and the W.M.S. President, Mrs. Leslie Thomas in the chair.

Mrs. Thomas opened the meeting with a tribute to the memory of the late Miss Daisy Ross who was a life member of the W.M.S. and who had passed away in March of this year. Mrs. Thomas read a portion of the hymn "Let the Lower Lights Be Burning" and said that the first recollection of Miss Ross was when as a child, she heard Miss Ross sing that hymn as a duet at a W.M.S. meeting. Mrs. Thomas led in prayer.

A poem "The Common Place Life" was read and a hymn was sung. The Scripture lesson from 2nd Timothy with commentary on the same was read by Mrs. O. Iorrie. A chapter from The Study Book "Together We Provide Christian Literature" was dealt with by Mrs. D. Gilchrist. Mrs. Iorrie led in prayer and the Devotions closed by singing a hymn.

A business meeting followed. Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. Roll was called and offering received and dedicated with prayer. Correspondence was read and dealt with and an invitation to be present at Kirkfield for their Thanksgiving was accepted.

Mrs. O. Iorrie, Home Help's Secretary, reported nine visits made and five cards sent since last meeting. The June meeting is to be a special Home Helpers meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Iorrie in the afternoon of the regular date.

Treasurer's report was given and the ladies were reminded that the supply allocations must be so that it can be forwarded to the Presbyterian Treasurer by the last of May.

Mrs. Ralph Yeates reported for the Explorers and extended an invitation to the W.M.S. ladies to attend the Initiation Service of the Explorers to be held in the Church at a later date.

Mrs. Cecil Simpson read a recipe for "a year around Christmas Cake" and the meeting closed with the hymn "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me", which had been requested by Mrs. Neil McLean one of the blues.

W.A. Mrs. Minnie Hill, vice-president of the Women's Association took the chair for a business meeting of that organization and opened with prayer.

Minutes were read and approved. Roll called, offering received and correspondence read and approved. Mrs. Hill reported that two quilts had been completed for Lady in Trouble. The handbag, Mrs. J. Dwyer for having one lady in her home and also the ladies who helped to make it.

She also thanked the W.M.S. for their programme and Mrs. McKewen for her home. Meeting closed with a hymn and a social half hour was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. William Stamp

Rural services were conducted in the Haliburton Gospel Hall on May 25th, for the late Mrs. William Stamp who passed away in the Red Cross Hospital on May 22, 1961, in her 71st year.

The late Mrs. Stamp had been confined to hospital two weeks. She was widely known and highly respected. Her Christian character, and her kindness won her many friends and her illness and death was regretted by all who came in contact with her.

In her home she was a wonderful mother. She leaves a grown-up family.

The late Mrs. Stamp was a member of the Gospel Light-house and a personal friend of Mr. and Mrs. Fairhurst. The remains rested at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Madeline Eagle Lake, until the time of service and thence to Haliburton Gospel Hall.

Mrs. Fairhurst spoke very fittingly of the deceased at the crowded church hall. He urged the family to follow on in the Christian way Mrs. Stamp had lived.

Flowers in abundance filled the home where Mrs. Stamp had lived. Interment was made in Minden Cemetery.

ROUND OF CONFERENCES

President Kennedy has begun a round of conferences with European leaders. He flew to Paris today, and has gone into conference with President De Gaulle. He will meet Premier Khrushchev at Vienna this week and will confer with Prime Minister Macmillan at London before returning home. Upon arriving at Paris, Kennedy said, "our goals are western security and peace."

SECURITY PRECAUTIONS VERY STRICT

Security precautions are very strict, despite the obvious enervation of the French for their visitors. Hundreds of thousands of Parisians cheered as the Kennedys drove in from Orly Field—a reception every bit as enthusiastic as that given President Eisenhower a year ago.

NEARING RECORD

The automobile death toll for the U.S. Memorial Day weekend is nearing a record. Figures still being in the show cars killed more persons than during any other Memorial Day, and the number appears likely to surpass the figure of 461 reported over Labor Day in 1951. At the latest tally, 460 persons have died in U.S. highways since Friday evening.

SEVEN MORE IN JAIL

Seven more so-called "Freedom Riders" are in jail in Jackson, Mississippi. They met the same fate as previous riders who tried to integrate transportation facilities in Jackson. The group rode into the Illinois Central Station yesterday and were arrested immediately. They turned down 60-day suspended sentences and $100-dollar fines, choosing instead to go to jail.

WORLD WIDE BOYCOTT

The President of Ghana has called for a world-wide trade boycott and concerted African action to bring Portugal out of Angola. Kwame Nkrumah appeals must be made to the Portuguese people by, as he put it, "every peaceful means" to end what he termed the "unjust and inhuman Colonial War."

REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA BEGINS

The Republic of South Africa was born this morning. A canon boom marked its formation. Its first president is Charles Swart, a former Hollywood bit player. It has a voting population of three-million whites and a non-voting population of 12-million suppressed non-whites. The inauguration of the new republic breaks a 155-year link with Britain.

EXPECTED TO AMEND PROVISIONS

Liberal Senators in the Senate's Banking and Commerce Committee are expected to amend arbitrary provisions to the government's Tariff Bill in Ottawa today. Last night the Senate approved the principle of the bill, although Liberal Senators opposed provisions which give the Revenue Minister arbitrary powers in certain tariff decisions.

ANOTHER GRAIN SALE

Canada is negotiating another grain sale to the Communist world. Agriculture Minister Avlin Hamilton says discussions are underway with Polish government officials for purchase of an undisclosed amount of grain. Poland bought a quarter of a million tons of wheat 18-months ago under a three-year credit deal.

CLOSE LOOK

Canada Thistle

Creeper or field thistle, as it is commonly referred to, it has very wide distribution throughout Ontario's land.

This pest, introduced from Europe by the pioneers, grows in a wide variety of soil and moisture conditions, although it is less common or absent on light, dry soils.

Canada thistle is most troublesome in waste places, vacant lots, roadsides and cultivated fields. In the Weed Control Act for Ontario it is on the noxious list.

Canada thistle is a perennial, spreading by seeds and whitish underground root-stocks. It is readily distinguishable from other thistles by a combination of green stems without spiny wings and small, almost spineless heads. It is thorny thistle with male and female flowers on separate plants. In some areas, the feeding of insect larvae on the immature seeds helps considerably to control the spread of the weed.

In old grass pasture fields and waste places, 10 to 24 ounces of 2, 4-D herbicide ester in 5 to 20 gallons of water per acre applied in late spring will control thistle. In some seedling and in mature meadows high in alfalfa, 20 to 24 ounces of 2, 4-D acid in 24 ounces of 2, 4-D amine or 24 ounces of 2, 4-D amine complete eradication, more acid in 10 to 20 gallons of water per acre.

Canada or grain is 6 to 8" high.

STOP!.... killing yourself

EYE STATISTICS
I have just received some data from New York based upon information that appears in PATTENSON OF DISEASE. Women have weaker eyes than men. In the 30-34 age group, 48 per cent of women have defective vision as compared to 42 per cent of men. Each year nearly 30,000 Americans become blind. In the 40-50 age group the percentage is even greater: 57 per cent of men compared with 60 per cent of women. Every other person in the U.S. wears either eyeglasses or contact lenses. The estimates are 77,000,000 and 6,000,000 respectively. Only 43 per cent of people important factor. Every work ing day in our country there are at least 1,000 eye injuries. Safety programs are effective. For example, PATTENSON notes that "one large Ohio plant which once had 500-600 eye injuries a month now has none."

One person in about every 50 (in people over 40) may have undetected and unsuspected glaucoma. Many times in this column I have suggested that no physical examination is complete unless the doctor gives you a corneal tonometer test. (A simple procedure in which he measures your "eye-pressure.")

At present, the majority of such tests are given only to illness specialists, or by their nurses. I believe this procedure should also be used by every general practitioner, (medical specialist) and every physician who advises people to come in at least once a year

To repeat again: it isn't a complete physical! I have had a tonometer test to rule out unsuspected glaucoma. If we discover it early, we can prevent blindness by sending you to an eye specialist.

Blindness, like many other illnesses which lay their heavy burden on mankind, often can be prevented. To prevent or conquer illness there must be a going partnership between a skilled doctor and a cooperative patient. Are you fully cooperative?

Spring in Canada: A Time of Discovery

Spring in Canada is a time of discovery — a time for investigation. How soft is a lamb? How easy to catch? Perhaps the lambs are wondering, too... Below, members of Admiral Drake's Rolla tell their working gear before sailing off a sunny new world.

Spring comes to Canada in a thousand different ways. A little girl watches spring unfold in the deep bowl of a tulip. A prairie prairie passes on his way to the barn as lawling calves bring sound again to the land after a winter of silence and snow. A British Columbia teacher finds an idle student gazing out a school window at far-off mountains and, for a moment, gaze idly, too. An east-coast fisherman, skillfully untangling a winter worn net, shades his eyes against the glare of warm sunlight sparkling on blue water. And deep in the sun-shaded silence of an Ontario wood an artist, trying to capture spring, leaves at last triumphant with a delicate water-colour of two crooked, black wings standing sturdy and alone at the edge of a hollow of melting, soft-shaded snow.

National Film Board of Canada Photos

For many Canadians, spring comes in a visit to the farm. For Ottawa children, the farm means the Central Experimental Farm. There, youth sees youth awaken to spring. Even a worldly old sow permits herself to smile in pride over what is still, despite its universality every spring, quite an accomplishment.

A LOVELY YOU

By Mary Sue Miller

1961 Year of the Great Profile

Want a prettier profile? Just by the twist of a trim, it is possible to enhance the feminine profile. How the hair should be styled, however, depends on the individual contouring of one's own features.

For the better of a nose, the nose is a clean upsurse. The nose is thus formed it is severe to the eye of the nose, and therefore acts as an effective contour.

What the nose is not good, but an indifferent side view can be perfected by the clever management of the hair. The hair is the best of the hair on the nose or high on the back, never directly opposite the nose, but to the side of the nose.

Full of curls would completely destroy a mobile nose. But special advice: Trim type - complete.
